Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 23rd February 1870.

No. 256. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 26th January 1870, No. 560 :—

Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Bellary, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd December 1869, No. 303.

THE Accountant-General, before passing the salary of Naraniah, Sheristadar of this district, for the month of September last, has requested to be furnished with certificates showing that he has passed the Revenue Test, Lower Grade, and in Precise Writing.

2. With reference to this I have the honour to submit his case for the favourable consideration of the Board, and to state that it appears to be a peculiar one.

He was appointed a Sub-Sheristadar in 1860, long before the rules that such officers should pass these Tests came into force.

Vide Mr. Ballard's letter, paragraph 2, to Board, dated 2nd March 1863, No. 40, in Board's Proceedings, dated 6th March 1863.

* No. 502, dated 13th March 1863, Rev. Dept.

† Do. 780, do. 5th April 1866, do. do.

‡ Do. 1,755, do. 21st March 1867.

3. By the Order of Government as per margin* he was nominated for special duty, a special allowance of Rupees 200 and afterwards of Rupees 250 being sanctioned† for him.

4. Again, by the Orders of the Board as per margin,‡ he was appointed to act as Sheristadar of the Collectorate of Malabar, and for nearly two years was drawing the full salary of the office, Rupees 250.

5. In February last, he was transferred to a similar post in this district; just at that time, the Government of India had issued an Order prohibiting the grant of full pay to an acting officer, even though available.

6. From that date till August last he therefore drew the pay of Sub-Division Sheristadar with deputation allowance.

7. On the confirmation of Moorooogasam, Moodelliar as Deputy-Collector, Naraniah was confirmed as Sheristadar of this district.—Vide Board's Proceedings as per margin.§.

§ Enclosure to Mr. Sullivan's letter, No. 10, dated 21st January 1869, in Board's Proceedings, dated 27th January 1869, No. 563.
|| Mr. Ballard's letter, paragraph 2, to Board, dated 2nd March 1863, No. 40, in Board's Proceedings, dated 6th March 1863. Paragraph 2 of Mr. Ballard's letter, dated 13th January 1866, No. 17.
Government Proceedings, dated 5th April 1866, No. 780.

8. The Board are fully aware of his services: the Proceedings as per margin|| show that they have been highly thought of.

Extracts from the Jummabundy Reports of the Sub-Collector of Malabar for Fushies 1271 and 1272.

9. Naraniah has been twenty-five years in the service, and it is ten years since he was made a Sheristadar. His pay has been passed without objection all this time.

Extract from a letter from the Collector of Malabar to Board, 28th December 1863, No. 281.

Enclosure to Mr. Sullivan's letter, No. 10, dated 21st January 1869, in Board's Proceedings, dated 27th January 1869, No. 563.

10. Under the circumstances I have the honour to request that the Board will obtain the permission of Government that he be exempted from passing the Tests in question.

Mr. Sullivan's letter to Government, dated 12th June 1869, No. 39, paragraph 2.
Mr. Sullivan's letter, dated 12th June 1869, No. 133, in Board's Proceedings, 22nd July 1869, No. 5,275.

FEBRUARY.

Nos. 256-257.

Naraniah, Bellary Hoosoor Sheristadar.

—Accountant-General directed to pass the full salary of the office from the date of his confirmation.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 23rd February 1870.

SUBMITTED for the favourable consideration of Government.

2. Naraniah has held a position equivalent to that of a Sheristadar since long before the Special Tests came into force, and the case is one to which the Board are of opinion that the Examination Rules are not applicable.

No. 257. ORDER THEREON, 23rd February 1870, No. 278.

Miscellaneous.

THE Right Honourable the Governor in Council concurs with the Board of Revenue, and resolves to direct the Accountant-General to pass to Naraniah the full salary of the office to which he stands appointed, from the date of his confirmation.
