Proceedings of the Madras Government Revenue Department, 11th March 1870.

No. 100. Read the following letter from the Government Quinologist, Ootacamund, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Ootacamund, 1st March 1870:—

I HAVE the honour to enclose Indents on the Commissary-General for a stock of Spirit, which I request may be passed for supply. In procuring Spirit through this channel, instead of directly from the manufacturers, I apprehend that any difficulty that concerns the local Abkarry Regulations is avoided.

Miscellaneous.

ORDERED that the Indent be passed and sent to the Commissary-General for supply.
