No. 177. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 5th February 1870, No. 829 :—

Read the following letter from the Officiating Collector of Malabar, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Calicut, 17th December 1869, No. 348.

I HAVE the honour to report that in December 1865 two houses and three parambas or gardens, the property of the individuals noted in the margin, were made over by the Civil Judge, Calicut, to the Collector, to be dealt with under Section 6 of Regulation VII. of 1817.

1. Kondayedatha Cherotti (a woman).
2. Thekapattu Govinden Nair.

The property belonging to Kondayedatha Cherotti consists of a house valued at Rupees 12, and a garden in which it stands measuring A. 0, As. 5, A. 8, and paying a tax of 7 Pies to Government, and a jemmishistom of Annas 4 and Pies 7 to the joumi. The interest of the deceased in the garden can be sold for Rupees 33.

Thekapattu Govinden Nair left a house valued at Rupees 11½, and two gardens measuring A. 0, As. 13, A. 3, which have not been assessed to revenue.

He had the jemm of one and the simple lease of the other. The value of the former is estimated at Rupees 30, and his interest in the latter at Rupees 37.

The above properties are situated in the Chulanoor and the Ayakad Amshoms of the Palghaut Talook, and now under the management of the Adigharies.

2. The Board will notice the great delay which has occurred in reporting this case for their orders. It is attributable to the late Tahsildar of the Palghaut Talook not having submitted a report on the case.

3. I have the honour to request the Board's sanction to dispose of the property by sale, and credit the proceeds to Government.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government under Section 6, Regulation VII. of 1817.

2. In the foregoing letter the Officiating Collector reports that certain property was made over by the Civil Judge to the Collector in December 1865, to be dealt with under the Regulation above quoted.

3. The Board recommend that the Officiating Collector be authorized to sell the property on the public account.

4. They observe that the explanation of the Officiating Collector as to the delay in reporting the matter is not satisfactory, and it should be more specifically shown how the delay occurred.

No. 529.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 5th February 1920.

Read the following letter from A. McC. WEBSTER, Esq., Officiating Collector of Malabar, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Calicut, 17th December 1899, No. 348.

I have the honour to report that in December 1895, two houses and three parambar gardens, the property of the individuals noted in the margin, were made over by the Civil Judge, Calicut, to the Collector, to be dealt with under Section 6 of Regulation VII. of 1817.

The property belonging to Kondayedatha Cherotti consists of a house valued at Rupees 12, and a garden in which it stands measuring A. 0, As. 5, A. 8, and paying a tax of 7 pice to Government, and a Jennishistom of Annas 4, Pice 7, to the Jenmi. The interest of the deceased in the garden can be sold for Rupees 33.

Thekappattu Govinden Nair left a house valued at Rupees 11½, and two gardens measuring A. 0, As. 13, A. 3, which have not been assessed to Revenue.

He had the Jenmi of one, and the simple lease of the other. The value of the former is estimated at Rupees 30, and his interest in the latter at Rupees 37.

The above properties are situated in the Chulanoor and the Ayakad Amshoms of the Palghat Talook, and now under the management of the Adigharies.
