Public Bungalow at Herihall in Bellary District—Collector to submit his proposals for locating the Range Office in it through the Board of Revenue.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 2nd April 1870.

No. 23. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel A. S. MOBERLY, R. E., Superintending Engineer, 3rd Division, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Bellary, 7th March 1870, No. 3,453:—

WITH reference to G. O., No. 3,746, of 24th November 1869, I have the honour to inform you that I have lately inspected the building formerly used as a Soldiers' Rest-house at Herihall, and find that it consists of two rooms, each 30′ × 15′ with a narrow verandah in front and rear. As one of these would be ample for the Range Office, the proportion of the whole rent of Rupees 12 to be charged to Mr. Claridge would be one-half. I would beg, however, to propose that the building be given to the Range Officer rent free, on the condition of his keeping the same in good order; as there are no out-houses attached, and he would have to build them out of his own pocket.

2. As regards the office, I have the honour to inform you that the Acting Collector of Bellary has given me permission to say that he has no objection to the office being accommodated in the Public Bungalow at Herihall, which is now proposed to be given up, with the stipulation that a room be reserved for the accommodation of the District Departmental Officers, as authorized in G. O., No. 17, of 6th January 1870, in the Revenue Department, for the bungalow at Tadputry.

No. 24. ORDER THEREON, 2nd April 1870, No. 931.

CIVIL WORKS, No. 3.

UNDER the circumstances represented in paragraph 1, His Excellency the Governor in Council approves of the Supervisor in charge of the Raidroog Range of the Bellary District being allowed to occupy as his residence the building formerly used as a Soldiers, Rest-house at Herihall, on the condition indicated by Lieutenant-Colonel Moberly.

2. Paragraph 2 will be referred to the Revenue Department for consideration.
