It appears that all original Sunnuds were sent to the Board by Mr. Travers, under date the 23rd August 1804.	Mavalam service or for teaching Koran to Mus-sulman Students at Nellore. The service was kept up by the deceased and had since been attended to by his son-in-law, Hussein Khan alias Jayaman Miya.	Aminuddin, last holder, died on the 20th October 1869. He was the son of Gulam Moortujah, the original grantee.	Monthly allowance of Rupees 7 held by the deceased. He was the exclusive holder.	Fatmabideen Sultanbi, 70 years old, wife of the deceased. Fatabi, daughter of the deceased, 32 years old. Sakinabi, 15 years old. Makabi, 12 years old. Jamnabi, 10 years old. Haznabi, 8 years old. Masumi, 1 year old.	This allowance was registered in the name of the deceased, who was the son of the original grantee, as per Order of the Government, dated 30th August 1833. 2. The obligation of this allowance was to instruct Koran, etc., to Mussulman Students at Nellore. While continuing the allowance in the name of the deceased in 1833, the Government expressed an opinion that when the system of Public Instruction shall have come into full operation, Yeomias of this nature should be discontinued. The service in the present instance is reported to have been kept up. 3. In the orders of Government of Govt. of India, No. 231, dated 27th March 1817, margin, in G. O. 18th August 1859, cases of the No. 1,104. Hiko kind, the No. 603. allowances were continued without No. 990. any reference to the spread of education. In the latest Order, viz., that of 1865, the Board state in their Proceedings, confirmed by the Government, that Yeomias of this kind were originally granted are performed. nor is it likely that it would ever form a service.
				Grandson of the deceased being the son of his daughter. Abdul Vahab Khan, 6 years of age.
				Grandson of the deceased being the son of his daughter. Hussein Khan alias Jayaman Miya, son-in-law. No other means of livelihood.

may not be considered strictly perpetual and hereditary, yet it has been usual to continue them so long as the services for which they were originally granted are performed.
4. Under the present state of things, though education has much extended, no provision has been made for teaching the Koran, nor is it likely that it would ever form a part of school education. As explained above, the Government seem to have recognized this service and continued the allowance under such service.
5. The members of the family wish that the allowance may be registered in the name of deceased's daughter's son, Abdul Vahab Khan, a boy 6 years old, the service being performed by his father, Hussein Khan (son-in-law to the deceased).
6. I recommend accordingly that the allowance may be registered in the name of Abdul Vahab Khan, subject to report on lapse.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,

THE allowance in this case, Rupees 7 per mensem, was originally granted for teaching the Koran to Mahomedan Students at Nellore.

2. In sanctioning the registration of the allowance in the name of the incumbent, whose death is now reported, Government in their Order, dated 30th August 1833, observed that, in their opinion, Yeomiahs of this kind should be discontinued upon the intended system of Public Instruction coming into full and effective operation.

3. In their Proceedings, dated 22nd April 1865, No. 2,026, the Board in sanctioning the renewal of a similar allowance observed that though Yeomiahs of this kind may not be regarded as strictly perpetual and hereditary, yet it was customary to continue them so long as the services for which they were intended continued to be performed. These Proceedings were confirmed by Government Order, dated 12th May 1865, No. 999.

4. It is reported in the present case that the service is kept up; subject, therefore, to the confirmation of Government, the Board sanction the registration of the allowance in the name of Abdul Vahab Khan, grandson of the deceased. The service should be performed by his father, Hussein Khan, until Abdul Vahab Khan is competent to do so.
