*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,

No. 173. Read the following letter from C. J. CROSTHWAITE, Esq., Assistant Collector of Tinnevely, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 22nd December 1869 :—

I HAVE the honour to lay before you the following facts, for the favourable consideration of Government. At the beginning of last July, I availed myself of three months' privilege leave, to which I was then entitled. Towards the end of that period, I went to the Hills, and there became so unwell that when my leave terminated I was quite unable to join my appointment at Tuticorin. I therefore obtained a Medical Certificate and extended my leave into furlough for three months. Orders have now been issued for the retrenchment of all pay drawn by me during my sojourn on the Hills above the minimum allowance of Rupees 250 a-month. Thus the extension of the privilege leave I had originally obtained, has subjected me not only to the loss of my acting appointment at Tuticorin, but also to a serious reduction of pay.

2. This is all quite in accordance with the rules of the Service, and I do not therefore object to it; but as serious illness, and not any mere whim on my part, prevented the possibility of my journeying to Tuticorin to rejoin the post of Head Assistant, I hope the Government will take a favourable view of my case, and permit some arrangement by which the retrenchment may fall lightly upon me.

3. Owing to a serious affection in one of my legs I have now been recommended by a medical man here to proceed at once to England, and should the retrenchment be carried out at once, the whole of the trifling allowance to which I should be entitled during my stay in England would be swallowed up. Such a prospect as this would almost force me to neglect the medical advice to which I have alluded, and I therefore trust that the Government will extend their favour to me under such special circumstances, and, should I be obliged to go to England on leave, will postpone the retrenchment till my return, or should I take up an appointment, that they will recover the amount by moderate instalments of my monthly salary.

FORWARDED to the Accountant General for his remarks.

No. 174. From the Accountant-General, Madras, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort Saint George, 6th January 1870, No. 312.

WITH reference to your Endorsement, dated 27th ultimo, on a letter from Mr. Crosthwaite, dated 22nd idem, I have the honour to state that, as three months' furlough was granted to Mr. Crosthwaite, in continuation of three months' privilege leave, the latter leave was under the rules converted into furlough, whereby the sum of Rupees 2,223-4-1 became overdrawn by Mr. Crosthwaite, and was retrenched by this office. This department having no discretionary power to allow the above retrenchment to be paid by instalments as proposed by Mr. Crosthwaite, the whole amount was ordered to be re-paid in cash. Mr. Crosthwaite having now been advised to proceed to Europe, it rests with Government to decide on the mode
