*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,

No. 215. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 16th May 1870, No. 3,319:—

Read the following letter from the Collector of Kurnool, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 30th April 1870, No. 145.

I HAVE the honour to bring to your notice that Galab Khan, the Superintendent of Khandans, died early in March 1870, and I appointed his brother Sirdar Khan in his place. The Accountant-General has refused to pass his pay on the ground that he has not passed the General Test Examination.

2. As the duties of this Officer are peculiar and often bring him in contact with female pensioners, and can only be effectually performed by persons who live and move among them, I beg that the Examination Rules may be relaxed in his favour.

3. These duties were originally performed by two respectable pensioners of Motafakhat establishment, Yaseen Meyan and Omerdaraz Khan, each of whom had a monthly pension of 108 Rupees. When Yaseen Meyan died, a moiety of his pension was continued to his sons, and when the other Superintendent Omerdaraz

Vide Ex. Mins. Cons., No. 450, dated 2nd December 1851, Political Department. Khan, the grandfather of the present incumbent, died, the Government of India ordered the pension to be discontinued and the office included in the regular establishment, suggesting the appointment at the same time of Mohadin Khan, the son of Omerdaraz Khan, to that post. This suggestion was accordingly adopted and Mohadin Khan appointed. On his death in 1864, his eldest son Galab Khan, the late Superintendent, was appointed by Mr. Minchin, and though the Examination Rules were in force at the time, no objection seems to have been taken.

4. In consideration of these facts, especially of the difficulty of supervising the female pensioners of the Zenana of the late Nawab by any others than those who have been acquainted with them from infancy, I beg to recommend that Sirdar Khan may be exempted from the Examination Rules.

SUBMITTED for the favourable consideration of Government.

2. The Collector of Kurnool is of opinion, and the Board agree with him, that the Examination Rules ought not to apply to the appointment of Superintendent of Khandans.

No. 216. ORDER THEREON, 18th June 1870, No. 896.

Miscellaneous.

UNDER the circumstances stated by the Collector, the Government exempt Sirdar Khan from the operation of the Examination Rules as long as he holds the office of Superintendent of Khandans in Kurnool.
