

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 15th June 1871.

Read the following:—

No. 194. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 25th April 1871,
No. 1,721.

Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Chingleput, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Sydapet, 23rd March 1871,
No. 110.

SOORIAH SHASTRY, Head Clerk in the Office of the Inspector-General of Police, drawing a monthly salary of Rs. 100, was appointed by the Acting Sub-Collector of this district to act as Sub-Magistrate of From 7th November 1870 to 9th January 1871. Conjeveram Town on the two occasions
,, 23rd January to 10th March 1871. noted in the margin, the permanent incumbent having been promoted to act as Tahsildar of Madurantakum—vide Board's Proceedings, dated 6th October 1870, No. 1,066.

2. It appears from the letter of the Acting Sub-Collector, No. 160, dated 15th instant, copy of which is herein enclosed, that Sooriah Shastry has obtained six months' leave on forfeiture of the full pay of his substantive appointment as Head Clerk of the Office of the Inspector-General of Police.

3. With reference to the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th October 1870, No. 6,037, M. Sami Naidoo, Tahsildar of Madurantakum, forfeited the period he was absent on sick leave. The Board resolve to request the what allowances can be paid.

No. 195. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 23rd May 1871,
No. 2,125:—

Read again Board's Proceedings, 25th April 1871, No. 1,721.

Read also the following Memorandum from the Officiating Deputy-Accountant, General, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Fort Saint George, 5th May 1871, No. 729½.

Vide Board's Proceedings, No. 1,721, dated 25th April 1871.

2. The undersigned has the honour to observe that the case referred to being an exceptional one, should be submitted for the orders of Government.

3. As Sooriah Shastry is acting for a servant whose salary is less than Rs.
200 a-month, he may, with the sanction of Government, be granted deputation allowance in excess of what the rules allow; but such special allowance should not exceed the sum available, namely, Rs. 100 a-month for the first period—Rs. 180 monthly being the amount of savings during that time—and Rs. 67-8-0 per men-sem for the second period, that being the sum then available.

THE Board resolve to request Government to sanction payment of the rates of deputation allowance allowable according to the Accountant-General in the case of Sooriah Shastry while acting as Sub-Magistrate of Conjeveram.

holds a substantive appointment, but draws not the pay assigned to it. At any rate, I do not think his case is one clearly falling under the Order of Government, No. 240, dated 27th January 1869, quoted in Board's Standing Order, No. VIII. of 1869. It should rather be treated, I think, as a special one.

2. As Sami Naidoo did not join his appointment till 6th January last, and as Venkata-subbier was drawing a deputation allowance of Rs. 45 per mensem, the saving to Government up to that day amounted to Rs. 180 a-month. Sooriah Shastri may therefore be allowed Rs. 100 per mensem, the full pay of the Sub-Magistrate's office up to that time. But as Sami Naidoo resumed his appointment on the 6th January, and then took leave again, the amount available since that date is only Rs. 67½ per mensem. I think the Sub-Magistrate should be content with that sum for the period during which he acted a second time. Though the appointment was made unconditionally, and though I have not pledged myself to obtain the full or all the available salary for him, yet as the pay of his substantive appointment was Rs. 100, the same as that of his acting office, and as he has forfeited the whole of the former, I think his case is deserving of favourable consideration and exceptional treatment.

3. I have enclosed an extract of the Pay Abstracts which Sooriah Shastri submitted to the Treasury Deputy-Collector.

THE case seems to be an exceptional one. Sooriah Shastri holds an appointment worth Rs. 100 a-month, but he has obtained leave without pay to act as Sub-Magistrate of Conieveram.

the acting incumbent, is Rs. 180 per mensem.

4. M. Sami Naidoo, has again obtained leave on a moiety of pay, and the Sub-Magistrate of the Town of Conieveram was appointed to act for him—vide Board's Proceedings, dated 23rd February 1871, No. 830. Sooriah Shastri was nominated a second time to act for the latter. The sum available from the pay of Sami Naidoo on this occasion is Rs. 67-8-0 per mensem.

5. I have therefore the honour to request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government to my drawing the full pay of the Sub-Magistrate of the Town of Conieveram for Sooriah Shastri from 7th November 1870 to 9th January 1871, and from 23rd January to 10th March 1871, at Rs. 67-8-0 per mensem.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From the Acting Sub-Collector, to the Acting Collector of Chingleput, dated Guduvacheri, 15th March 1871, No. 100.

SOORIAH SHASTRI, the Head Clerk in the Office of the Inspector-General of Mofussil Police, Madras, was appointed by me to act as Sub-Magistrate of Conieveram Town, on two occasions, first, on the 2nd November 1870, and secondly, on the 21st January 1871, in the room of Venkata-subbier who was promoted to act as Tahsildar of Madurantakum, during the absence of Sami Naidoo on leave. The salary of Sooriah Shastri's substantive appointment is Rs. 100, and in order to act as Sub-Magistrate he obtained six months' leave of absence, on forfeiture of full pay, from the Inspector-General of Police. He reports that no pay has been passed to him by the Treasury Deputy-Collector who, perhaps, is in doubt as to the amount of allowance, whether 50 or 20 per cent. on the fixed salary to which the Sub-Magistrate is entitled under the existing rules, as he
