17	Ready money allowance of Rs. 210 per annum to one of the members of the Avalconda Jaghire-dar's family.	Granted by Government, as per Extract from M.O., dated 16th February 1850, No. 178, to Mahomed Ali Saib for the support of himself and five of his dependents, namely—Zyadah Begum, wife. Subadar Hussain, eldest son. Hussain Saib, second son (since deceased.) Takee Saib, third son. Kaseeja Begum, adopted daughter.	Charity for maintenance.	Mahomed Ali Saib died on the 19th June 1870.	The deceased and his family were in the enjoyment of the entire allowance.	1st.—Zyadah Begum alias Shaharban, widow, age 55. 2nd.—Subadar Hussain, age 40. 3rd.—Mahomed Takee Saib, age 27. 4th.—Kaseeja Begum, adopted daughter of the deceased, and now married to the above Subadar Hussain. 5th.—Kasatoolah Hussain, grandson, age 10. 6th.—Sauladee Begum, maid-servant's daughter, age 10. 7th.—Gulashahao, age 50, and 8th.—Koorshethanagar, age 46, conjoiners of the deceased; have no other means of livelihood.	An annual allowance of Rs. 210 was granted to Mahomed Ali Saib for the support of himself and his family (then consisting of five members) under the Order of Government, dated 16th February 1850, No. 178. Mahomed Ali died on the 19th June 1870, leaving, at his death, eight members of his family, as enumerated in Column 7, without any means of livelihood, and his eldest son, Subadar Hussain, requests that the above allowance may be continued in his name for their support. A reference to the papers noted in the margin shows that the pensions to the members of the Avalconda Jaghire-dar's family are Revenue, dated 31st January 1850, and are to lapse at the death of each incumbent. But the allowance in question having been granted for the support of six individuals, two only of whom have died, Court of Directors, dated 22nd August 1849, No. 10. (namely, Mahomed Ali, the head of the family, and Hussain Saib, his second son) the eldest son's claim seems to merit the consideration of Government. A revised list of the Avalconda Jaghire Pensioners, submitted with letter, No. 91, dated 15th December 1851, as directed in the aforesaid Order of Government, dated 16th February 1850, No. 178, shows that an allowance of Rs. 17-8-0 per man, allowed to one Rajah Hussain, a member of this family, was after his death reduced to Rs. 15 per month, and was continued under Order of Government, dated 16th May 1850, No. 498, in the names of Shumshunnisa Begum, Fatmakanam, and Abida Begum, the deceased's widow and daughters, respectively, at Rs. 5 each. The above-mentioned Subadar Hussain requests that similarly a sufficient allowance may be continued in his name for the maintenance of his family out of his deceased father's allowance. The allowance for May 1870 was paid to the deceased, Mahomed Ali, on the 3rd June 1870, and a sum of Rs. 11-1-4, due up to date of his death, remains undrawn by his heirs. The eight individuals mentioned in Column 7 live together as one family.
