

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 17th June 1871.

Read the following:—

No. 216. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 8th February 1871,
No. 591.

Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Bellary, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Anantapur, 9th January 1871,
No. 7.

THE Assistant Magistrate has reported that great inconvenience is experienced by the Police in the investigation of criminal cases owing to the village of Anantapur in the Hospett Talook, in which the Police Station is situated, being excluded from the local jurisdiction of the Sub-Magistrate of Kumply, while all other eighteen villages attached to the station are within his jurisdiction. It appears that when the transfer of villages from the jurisdiction of the Talook Magistrate of Hospett to that of the Kumply Sub-Magistrate took place, the name of this village must have been omitted by mistake. I have the honour, therefore, to request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of the Board of Revenue for the transfer of the said village to the jurisdiction of the Sub-Magistrate and Deputy-Tahsildar of Kumply.

THE Collector is requested to state whether the sanction of Government was obtained for the transfers notified in the District Gazette of the 23rd March 1867; if not, he should submit a list of the villages transferred and report in detail the reasons for the changes.

No. 217. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 29th May 1871, No. 2,168.
Read again Board's Proceedings, dated 8th February 1871, No. 591.

Read also the following letter from the Acting Collector of Bellary, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 18th March 1871, No. 111.

WITH reference to Board's Proceedings, No. 591, dated 8th ultimo, I have the honour to state that a Sub-Magistrate, distinct from the Taluq Magistrate of Hospett, was appointed at Kumply originally in 1861.

2. Mr. Hathaway, the then Collector, gave him jurisdiction over twenty-seven of the villages mentioned in the enclosed list, but it does not appear that any sanction was obtained for these proceedings.

Again in 1867, twenty-eight more villages were transferred to the jurisdiction of the Kumply Sub-Magistrate, and the list was published in the District Gazette, at page 143, dated 23rd March 1867.

At the same time, eighteen villages were transferred to the jurisdiction of the Ramandroog Sub-Magistrate.

3. The talook contains altogether one hundred and forty-seven villages, and the arrangement was made to divide the Magisterial work amongst the Sub-Magistrates. This division followed necessarily upon the appointment of the extra Sub-Magistrates.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 17th June 1871.

I therefore request that the sanction of Government may be obtained to the villages mentioned in List No. I. being transferred to the local jurisdiction of the Sub-Magistrate of Kumply, and those in List No. II. to that of the Sub-Magistrate of Ramandroog.
