Read the following paper from the Collector of Cuddapah, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Gurramkondah,
24th April 1871.

Tabular Report on a lapsed Poligar pension in the district of Cuddapah.

Number.	Taluk and Village, extent and value of the entire Inam.	When and by whom granted, name of the original grantee, sunnuds or other documents in support of the grant.	Nature of the grant, charity or service, if service, nature of the duty prescribed by the grant.	Date of the grant, and the relationship in which he stood to the grantee.	Share enjoyed by the deceased, and that held by other members.	Family left by the deceased, and name and age of the parties; their circumstances, and the means of subsistence possessed by the family.	Remarks.
1	Yellamunda in Voilpad Talook. Annual allowance of Rs. 210, entered in No. 89 of Mr. Ross's Register, Statement X.	Granted by the British Government to Mella Naidoo, father of the deceased, and renewed in the name of the last holder Maela Naid under Order of Government, dated 14th May 1830. No sunnuds, etc., are forthcoming.	Compensation in lieu of resumed lands, offices, and privileges, etc.	Maela Naid, the last holder, died on the 19th November 1870. He was the son of the original grantee.	The whole allowance was enjoyed by the deceased.	1 Vencatamma Naikuralu, 1st wife of the deceased, aged 50 years. 1 Mella Naidoo, son of the deceased, aged 25 years, in whose name the allowance has to be renewed. Years. 1 Mellamma Naikuralu, his mother, aged 40 1 Her 3rd daughter Kondamma Naikuralu, aged 9 1 Timma Naidoo, 2nd brother of the deceased, aged 50 1 His wife Balamma, aged 30 1 Her son Kondamma Naidoo, aged 5 1 Appi Naidoo, 3rd brother of the deceased, aged 5	This allowance, which was originally granted to Mella Naidoo, was subsequently renewed in the name of his son Maela Naid, who died on the 19th November 1870. The present claimant Mella Naidoo, aged 25 years, is the unmarried son of Kondamma Naidoo (deceased), the younger brother of the last holder Maela Naid, and the second son of the original grantee. All other surviving principal members of the family have deposed before the Deputy-Tahsildar of Peelair to the effect that they have no objection to the renewal of the pension in the name of the present claimant Mella Naidoo. The allowance was left undrawn from June 1870. It is recommended that the allowance may be renewed in the name of the said Mella Naidoo, aged 25 years, and arrears of allowance due to him be paid. The delay in submitting this information was caused by the absence, through illness, of the deceased's wife, one of the chief members of the family. (Signed) E. STORR, Acting Sub-Collector. The allowance has been registered in the name of Mella Naidoo, the legal heir and representative of the deceased pensioner, as recommended by the Sub-Collector, subject to confirmation by Government through the Board of Revenue. The arrears, which amount to Rs. 175, from 1st June 1870 to 31st March 1871, may also be sanctioned for payment to the above individual.

The present claimant has three sisters, two of whom are married, and are living with their husbands, and the third is only a minor and unmarried. The original grantee's brothers who are all deceased have a few descendants living together depending on the money allowance and on the lands detailed below :—

RS. A. P.
Puttah lands, wet and dry, assessed at 47 7 9
Kavali Inam 7 15 9
Shamilat Dusbundum Inam 29 14 1

Amounting in all to 85 5 9
The puttah lands appear to have been acquired by themselves, while the Dusbundum Inams are granted for the repair of works. Beyond the above, the family have no other means of subsistence.

1. SUBMITTED for the confirmation of Government.
2. Subject to the audit of the Accountant-General, the Board sanction payment of the arrears, Rs. 175, to Mella Naidoo.
