No. 239. Read the following letter from the Second Member of the Board of Revenue in charge of the Inam Department, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 7th July 1871, No. 20.

I HAVE the honour to request the sanction of Government for the refund of • Collector's letters dated 27th February and 22nd June 1871, Nos. 76 and 245.

Rs. 225* erroneously collected from certain Police Kattubadi Inam-holders in the district of Bellary.

2. Though these Inams have been registered and their quit-rents fixed, the issue of Title-deed is in abeyance with reference to the order quoted in the margin.

Government Order dated 24th November 1863, No. 2,121.

3. The quit-rents, however, appear to have been collected by the Talook authorities in a few cases under misapprehension, and the collections must now be refunded.

Miscellaneous.

SANCTIONED.
