ABSTRACT.—Salt imported into Malabar from Bombay.—Claim of the contractor for a refund of Rs. 8,465, being the amount of wastage which occurred during 1868-69, with orders thereon.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Statement.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.—Petition.

REFERRING to paragraphs 7 and 8 of the above order the Board remark that in a similar case of refund sanctioned in Government Order, Revenue Department, dated 26th May 1871, No. 928, application was made by the Government of Madras to the Government of Bombay for refund of the amount sanctioned. The Board presume, however, that it is intended that in this case the refund is to be made through the Collector, and this will accordingly be done, unless other instructions are received.

2. The Collector of Malabar will submit proposals for preventing similar losses to Government in future, as directed in the last paragraph of the order of Government above recorded.
