Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Malabar, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Calicut, 13th July 1871, No. 169.

ONE Koroth Sankaran Nair of the Kannamangalam Amshom, Taluk, died in April last, leaving no legal heirs according to the rules of succession followed by his caste.

2. The deceased left behind him landed property of the net value of Rs. 78-12-0, allowances being made to meet his liabilities, and this, in the absence of lawful heirs, should lapse to the State.

3. The deceased left, however, a widow and two children. I recommend that as the property is only of a trifling value, it be made over, as an act of grace, to the widow and two children of the deceased.

SUBMITTED for the favourable consideration of Government.
