To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
REVENUE, AND COMMERCE.

Miscellaneous.

SIR,—With reference to your letter dated 20th July 1871, No. 99, regarding sales of lands which may have special value either on account of their mineral wealth, their forests, or other causes, I am directed to report, for the information of the Government of India, that no such cases have occurred in this Presidency, and that there appears to be no need to suspend the sale of waste lands here.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

(Signed) W. HUDLESTON,
Secretary to Government.
