Sheweth. 434-

That hearing that pensions which were drawn from the Office of the Deputy Collector of Madras are transferred to your Department; your petitioner begs to bring to your kind notice that she was drawing a pension of six Rupees from the Government of Sathumhak and that having been granted leave of absence for 2 years by the Deputy Collector of Madras she came to Hyderabad and has been residing here. As your petitioner's leave will expire in a short time she respectfully begs that you will be kind enough to take the necessary measures to secure the transfer of the payment of her pension to Hyderabad as she finds she enjoys better health here than she and her husband did in Madras.

In case her prayer is granted your petitioner further begs that you will please jagir Nos. 34 & 130 -

Respectfully Sheweth, that it is nearly a year since the petitioner left Madras for Hyderabad with her husband obtaining leave from the Deputy Collector of Madras -
 The petitioner's husband receives very scanty salary here in Hyderabad which is scarcely sufficient to maintain a large number of her children & thus the petitioner being in want of travelling expenses she is quite unable to to leave that place for Madras and consequently in the month of November & December 1870 she forwarded 2 petitions to the of the Deputy Collector of Madras through the Paymaster's Office at Secunderabad soliciting the transfer of her pension to the said Paymaster's office & likewise she forwarded 2 other petitions by Post-duly Registered on the 6th & 27th January 1871 one to the address of the Deputy Collector of Madras & the other to the address of the Accountant General on the same subject but she received no answer for any of the petitions thus forwarded by her.

3. Under these circumstances the petitioner hopes that your honour will be graciously pleased through mercy & kindness to transfer her pension with arrears to the Office of the Paymaster at Secunderabad where the petitioner will present her life Certificate -

For which act of kindness mercy the petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray
