Proceedings of the Madras

14th Sept.

No. 178.

Forests, No. 5.

Conservator of Forests has his head reside himself on the Nilgiris between his official tours and occasional visits to the Presidency.

2. The arrangement involves certain objectionable anomalies, in view to removing which the Government resolve to declare Ootacamund to be the Conservator's head-quarters, at which he will draw a permanent allowance of Rs. 60 monthly for office-rent in lieu of office-accommodation, his marching allowance of Rs. 10 per diem ceasing one week after his arrival on the Hills, and recommencing one week before his departure from them; this week being allowed to permit of his camp preceding him on departure, and rejoining the head-quarter station after his own return.

3. The Office Establishment under the Assistant Conservator in Madras will remain there for the present. Its future position will be decided with the question of the general reorganization of the department.
