

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,

14th September 1871.

No. 179. Read the following letter from the Officiating Accountant-General, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Ootacamund, dated Fort Saint George, 9th September 1871, No. 244:—

In reply to your memorandum No. 168, dated 5th instant, I have the honour to inform you that the Museum at Rajahmundry is the only Museum to which an allowance of Rs. 55 monthly is granted under Extract Minutes Consultation, No. 1,174, dated 31st August 1855.

No. 180. ORDER THEREON, 14th September 1871, No. 1,597.

Miscellaneous.

THE Government learn from the Accountant-General that the Rajahmundry Museum continues to receive a monthly grant of Rs. 55 under the G. O. of 31st August 1855, No. 1,174, but no information regarding the institution has for a very long time reached Government, and there is nothing to show that the allowance is necessary or well applied.

2. The Collector of the Godavery District will furnish a full report on the subject, with a complete list of the contents of the Museum and information as to the additions that have been made to it of late years, the annual number of visitors, and the manner in which the allowance is expended.

No 1597.

10 Sept 44.

I have been informed by the Anti-Slavery Committee that the following persons are desirous of receiving a grant of money from the 53rd and the 54th of Aug. 53.
 The 54th of Aug. 53.
 regarding the institution
 of a day school
 time started for
 and this is all that I know of the allowance is necessary or will be paid.

I am, Sir,
 Your obedient servant,
 The Secretary to the Anti-Slavery Society.

If the Museum is really as it should be entitled - let us really have to know what about it - I would imagine what it contains - what exhibits have been made - but - how many the visitors have been to it?

It is a matter of fact that the Anti-Slavery Museum is a very interesting one.
