Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
10*th October* 1871.

No. 100. Read the following endorsement of the Officiating Accountant-General, Madras, dated Fort St. George, 30th September 1871, No. 278:—

Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 22nd September 1871, No. 4,061.

Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Sea Customs, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Madras, 13th September 1871, No. 870.

THE officers noted in the margin having been appointed to officiate as Deputy-Collector, Appraiser, Deputy-Appraiser, and Manager, respectively, consequent on the appointment of Mr. J. C. Loch as Officiating President to the Municipal Commission, I have the honour to request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government for Messrs. Shaw and Blake being substantively appointed as Deputy-Collector and Appraiser during the absence of the permanent incumbent Mr. J. C. Loch, to enable them and the other two officers to draw the full salary of their appointments from 1st August 1871, under Chapter 2, Section 11 of the "General Rules" of the "Acting Allowance Code," published in the Fort St. George Gazette of 22nd August 1871, page 1,346.

Mr. G. B. Shaw. Mr. W. E. Fox.
,, T. G. Blake. K. Arnachella Moodelly.

2. From the date* of Mr. Loch's transfer to the Municipal Commission, the acting incumbents were paid allowances only at 20 per cent. under the old rules; but, as the new rules now allow the disbursement of full salary when available, and, as Mr. Loch's full salary in the Custom-house is so available, I request that Government will be pleased to authorize the Accountant-General to pass the full salary to the acting incumbents, which will involve no extra expense on the State.

* 19th October 1870.

SUBMITTED for the favourable consideration of Government through the Accountant-General.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. Mr. Loch not drawing any portion of the pay of the Deputy-Collectorship of Sea Customs, Messrs. Shaw and Blake can, under Section 11 of the Acting Allowance Code, be appointed substantively, for the period of Mr. Loch's absence, to the appointments in which they are respectively acting, so that they can draw the full pay thereof.

(Signed) G. FITZGERALD,
Officiating Accountant-General.
