		Mis.
Dated	8. 2.	1871.

Not to be folded or roughly handled

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 8th February 1871.

No. 107. Read the following telegram from the Zemindars of Nidadavole Estate, to His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor, Fort Saint George, dated 31st January 1871 :-

“ We are favoured with your instruction of 5th ultimo. Beg to inform your Lordship that we willingly render all our aid in conducting Census in our estate. Issued orders to our Revenue Amildars for guidance of your instructions. Received no letter yet from Collector as contained in your order. Beg to exempt our house from being numbered as it is derogatory to our honour, which has been maintained from time immemorial by British Government. It is not therefore just to treat us with common people. Should you think our prayer objectionable, we submit ourselves to the Collector a separate statement to that effect.”

No. 108. ORDER THEREON, 8th February 1871, No. 258.

Miscellaneous.

TRANSFERRED, through the Board, to the Collector of Godavery, who will convey to the Zemindars the thanks of Government for their ready promise of assistance in taking the Census, and will inform them that, in compliance with their request, the Enumeration Form having reference to their house can be filled up by them instead of by the Enumerator, and forwarded (if they prefer it) direct to the Collector instead of to the Enumerator.

2. The Government observe that this course has already been partially provided for by paragraph 20 of the draft memorandum drawn up by the Board, and in such exceptional cases as those of Zemindars who aid towards the accomplishment of the Census, it will be easy to avoid all possible causes of annoyance by allowing them to forward the forms bearing the necessary information in regard to their own households direct to the Collector of the district.
