

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 6th March 1871.

No. 85. Read the following letter from the Under-Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, (Pensions and Gratuities,) to the Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George, dated Fort William, 15th February 1871, No. 872.—

I AM directed to state, for the information of the Government of Madras, that Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India in a despatch in the Revenue Department (No. 73, dated 30th November 1870), forwarded to the Government of India a Memorial, dated 20th October 1870, submitted direct to His Grace by Candragoolah Jagganadharow Gopaulrow, and invited our opinion on the application made by the Memorialist in a previous Memorial, dated 24th August 1869, which was received in this department with your letter, No. 734, dated 18th May 1870. In reply the Secretary of State has been referred to the letter of this department, to the Government of Madras, No. 2,092, dated 20th July 1870 (a copy of which was forwarded to the Secretary of State with the Revenue despatch of the Government of Madras, No. 42, dated 20th December 1870), as indicating the views of the Government of India on the application of Candragoolah Jagganadharow Gopaulrow, and the Memorial of the 20th October 1870 has been returned to the Secretary of State.

2. I am to forward herewith extract paragraph 4 of the despatch of the Secretary of State under notice.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.
