627	Ready money allowance of Rs. 47 per annum for sweeping the Durgah of Syed Ally Sultan at Vellore.	As per Sanad of the Nabob of Wallajah, dated 2nd Rajab Hizi 1200, granted to Syed Mahomed.	Service Yeomiah sweeping the Durgah of Syed Ally Sultan.	Yacoub Hussein died on the 3rd May 1855. Grandson to the original grantee.	1. Ryed Dewan, Cawdim : : 153 0 0 2. Cawder Khan, do : : 153 0 0 3. Yacoub Hussein Sweeper : : 47 0 0 Total : : 353 0 0	Mahomed Hyat, the son of the deceased's maternal uncle, age 82. Possesses no other means of subsistence than this allowance.	The entire allowance of Rupees 354 granted for this institution was divided amongst the three Yeomahdars mentioned in column 6 in the proportion therein shown. Of these, Yacoub Hussein, who was in the enjoyment of a share of Rs. 47 per annum under the orders of the Board of Revenue, dated 25th May 1820, died in the Zillah Jail at Chittoor on the 3rd May 1855, while undergoing a sentence of rigorous imprisonment on a charge of culpable homicide. No near relatives survive him. Mahomed Hyat, the present claimant, is the son of Yacoub Hussein's maternal uncle. Mahomed Hyat presented an arzi on the 18th November 1861 to Mr. Locke, the then Deputy-Collector, requesting that the allowance might be continued in his name, as he had been performing the service connected with this institution ever since the demise of Yacoub Hussein. But as he had falsely stated in his Arzi that he was a brother of the deceased, his claim was rejected, as per endorsement, dated 10th March 1862, No. 53. He (Mahomed Hyat) thereupon appealed to the Board on the 24th February 1869. On the receipt of the Board's endorsement, dated 13th May last, on his petition, No. 681 (herewith returned), his case was referred to the Tahsildar of Vellore for inquiry. It appears from the Tahsildar's report that the petitioner is the son of the maternal uncle of the deceased Yacoub Hussein, and that the service, being that of a sweeper, has been regularly performed by him from the date of Yacoub Hussein's demise. Considering that petitioner (Mahomed Hyat) falsely represented himself to be the brother of the former incumbent, the Collector is not prepared to recommend that he be allowed the arrears which up to the 30th September last amount to the large sum of Rs. 677-5-4 ; but with reference to the Board's Standing Order, No. 180, requests that the Government may be moved to revive to Mahomed Hyat from 1st October 1869 (the commencement of the current quarter) the allowance at the rate of Rs. 47 per annum.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 6th March 1871.

From the Acting Collector of North Arcot, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chittoor, 4th January 1871, No. 2.

ADVERTING to the official memorandum from the Acting Sub-Secretary to the Board, dated the 14th ultimo, No. 1,371, I have the honour to state, for their information, that there are no grounds for supposing that Mahomed Hyat used the word "brother" in its literal sense. It appears that his claim was rejected in 1862 under an erroneous impression that he did so use it. The evidence adduced by him in proof of his relationship to Yacoob Hussain showed that he was his cousin and not brother. Mahomed Hyat was asked to explain the discrepancy between his allegation and the evidence, and he stated that it was customary to call a cousin a brother.

2. Petition No. 3,824 was written by Mahomed Hyat himself, and not by Syed Sultan as mentioned in the memorandum under reply, and an endorsement was passed upon it in 1865 referring petitioner to the one given in 1862 rejecting his claim, which would thus appear to be genuine.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Petition.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. Yacoob Hussain, who held an allowance of Rs. 47 per annum as Sweeper of the Syed Ally Sultan Durgha at Vellore, died on the 3rd May 1855, leaving as sole heir his cousin Mahomed Hyat.

On the 18th November 1861 Mahomed Hyat claimed the allowance as brother of the deceased. His claim was rejected on the ground that he had falsely represented himself as the brother of the deceased, whereas, in fact, he was only his cousin.

4. It is evident, however, from Mr. Whiteside's letter that Mahomed Hyat had no fraudulent intention in describing himself as the brother of the deceased. The Board, therefore, recommend that the allowance be renewed in the name of the present claimant from the 18th November 1861, the date on which he preferred his claim.

5. It is reported that the service has been kept up since the death of the late incumbent.
