

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 29th March 1871.

No. 459. Read the following Proceedings of the Board
March 1871, No. 484.

Read Proceedings of the Board

March 1871, No. 484.

THE grants under Petty Construction and Repairs for 1871-72 will not permit of the sum of Rs. 2,750 being met therefrom. The Pound Fund of the Tanjore District exhibits a surplus of Rs. 11,817 at the end of February 1871, and the sum required may be obtained from this source, if the Government so desire.

2. The Board had hoped, however, that the Pound Fund would have been applied to purposes connected with agricultural experiments, improvements in the breed of cattle, and so forth.

No. 460.

ORDER THEREON, 29th March 1871, No. 580.

Miscellaneous.

ON consideration the Government are of opinion that the sum of Rs. 2,750 required for this boat-canal may properly be provided from the District Fund for roads and communications, and desire that the Board will issue the necessary instructions.
