wishes to appoint two watchers on Rs. 5 each to visit the different jungles of the slopes and prevent smuggling and he also proposes to station one of his peons at Yeread to collect the tickets issued for lumber &c. these proposals have the approval of the collector.

3. The small plantation near Yeread was commenced by Lieutenant Walker with the sanction of Mr.
C. Leghorn and the then collector, it could never be a profitable speculation as timber could not be removed from it to the plains but it may be of much value for experimental planting &c. so I should be sorry to see
