Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 23rd May 1871.

No. 309. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 21st April 1871, No. 1,662:—

Read the following letter from the Collector of Madura, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue dated 23rd March 1871. No. 88

Proceedings of the Board, dated 29th August 1842, communicating to the Collector of Tanjore extract of a despatch from the Court of Directors, dated 18th May 1842. To Board from Collector of Madura, 7th November 1848, No. 135. From Board, 30th November 1848. To Board, 4th January 1849, No. 2. From do., 18th do. 1849.

acted in the margin I have the honour to inform the Board, translation of an Arzi presented to me by C. Vencata Row, son of Beema Row, late Head Sheristadar of North Arcot, requesting that the pension of Rs. 87-8-0 to be continued to his heirs should, after his death, be equally divided between his adopted son Beema Row and his wife Camala Boye Ammal.

2. Petitioner Vencata Row states that the conduct of his adopted son towards him and his wife has become so overbearing and intolerable, and his general character so bad, that he has no hope that his adopted son will properly maintain his (petitioner's) wife after his death. As I have reason to believe that Vencata Row's statement is to some extent true, I beg to support his prayer, with the proviso that the moiety of the pension to be granted to petitioner's wife should revert to his adopted son in case the latter should outlive the former.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Translation of an Arzi.

SUBMITTED for the favourable consideration of Government.

No. 310. ORDER THEREON, 23rd May 1871, No. 909.

Miscellaneous.

In the late Honourable Court's despatch to this Government, dated 18th May 1842, No. 12, one-half the pension, or Rs. 4,200, assigned by them to Beema Row, some time Head Sheristadar in North Arcot, was bestowed upon his four sons in equal shares, the same to be continued to their heirs of the next generation.

2. One of these sons, Vencata Row, now prays that his particular pension (Rs. 87-8-0) may be divided at his death between his adopted son and his widow, as the scandalously reprehensible courses which the former is addicted render it unlikely that he will properly maintain his adoptive mother.

3. The Collector and Board of Revenue support this petition; but the Governor in Council is doubtful whether the stipend does not lapse at Vencata Row's death: "Pensions granted hereditarily are to cease when the hereditary line fails, and are not to pass to adopted children."

Miscellaneous.

SIR,—In the late Honourable Court's despatch to this Government, dated 18th May 1842, No. 12, one-half the pension, or Rs. 4,200, assigned by them to Beema Row, some time Head Sheristadar in North Arcot, was bestowed upon his four sons in equal shares, the same to be continued to their heirs of the next generation.

2. One of these sons, Vencata Row, now prays that his particular pension (Rs. 87-8-0) may be divided, at his death, between his adopted son and his widow, as the scandalously reprehensible courses to which the former is addicted render it unlikely that he will properly maintain his adoptive mother.

3. The Collector and Board of Revenue support this petition, but the Governor in Council is doubtful whether the stipend does not lapse at Vencata Row's death. "Pensions granted hereditarily are to cease when the hereditary line fails, and are not to pass to adopted children," has been the general rule since the receipt of the orders of the Government of India in the case of the Sooramaney family in Guntoor, 26th May 1851, No. 315.

4. This, however, is twenty years ago; and adverting to the very different light in which adoption by a Hindoo is now regarded in the Fiscal and Political Departments of the State, the rights of the son lawfully adopted being very generally recognized as equal in every respect to those of a son lawfully begotten, I am instructed to refer the case, and to express the hope that the distinction not yet formally repealed in the matter of hereditary pensions may be declared to be abrogated.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.

Acting Secretary to Government.

to his son,

In the late Honble C. J. Despatch of 12th May 1871, No. 12, one half the pension, on Rs. 4200, assigned by him to Beema Row, sometime Head Tahsildar in North Arcot, was bestowed upon his four sons in equal shares, he came to be continued to their heirs of the next generation.

I do not think the ruling applicable to the case of this nature - granted for a stated number of years that his particular of lives or adoptions is now required. If recently from the manner it was 20 years ago.

2. One of these sons, Venkat Row, pension (Rs. 2700 & 0) may be divided at his death between his adopted son & his widow, as he scandalously reprehensible courses to which he former is addicted renders it unlikely that he will properly maintain his adoptive mother.

I am not sure that the ruling does not apply. I would ask the Govt. of India.

3. The Col. & Bd. of Rev. support his petition; but the Govt. is doubtful whether he stipends, especially at Venkat Row's death. "Pensions granted hereditarily are to cease when the hereditary line fails, & are not to pass to adopted child unless." [This is the general rule, & the case is reported.] Certainly does not call for an special exception. 23/5/71

Order of the Secretary to the Financial Department

For the late Honorable County Despatch to the Secretary
dated 18th May 1872 N. 12,
one half the pension, on Rs.
4,200, assigned by them to
Bheem Row, sometime Head
Shrivastadar in North Arcot
was bestowed upon his four sons in equal shares the same to be continued to their heirs of the next generation.
2. One of these sons, Venkat Row, now prays that his particular pension (Rs. 87.8.0)

may

may be divided at his death between his adopted son and his widow, as the scandalously reprehensible courses to which the former is addicted render it unlikely that he will properly maintain his adop-
-tive mother.

3 The Collr & Board of Revenue support this petition;
but the Governor in Council is doubtful whether the Stipend
does not lapse at Venkat Rao's death. "Pensions granted heredi-
-tarily are to cease when the hereditary line fails, and are not to pass to adopted Children."
has been the general rule since the receipt of the Orders of the Govt of India in the case of the Sooramany family, in Bombay, 26th May 1851 No 315.

4. This however is 20
