Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 13th January 1871.

No. 185. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 14th December 1870, No. 7,124:—

Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 10th November 1870, No. 39, Revenue Department.

ABSTRACT.—Referring for report Proceedings of Government, Political Department, ~~concerning~~ release of certain British subjects charged by the Cochin authorities with unlawful assembly, arson, and robbery, the charges not being proved.

COMMUNICATED to the Collector of Malabar for report.

2. The Board, as at present informed, are not aware what good would be done by adopting special measures for demarcating the line between Cochin and Malabar. The boundaries have been defined by the decision in 1815 and the Government Order of 1853, and they are also laid down in the map now in the possession of the Collector. The Board believe that the frontier is well defined naturally, so that no artificial demarcation is necessary, and it would be inexpedient to give the Cochin authorities a seeming opportunity of re-opening questions which have long since been settled.

3. At the spot where the dispute referred to in these papers occurred, the eastern branch of the Oolipara Tode is unquestionably the boundary.

With regard to the map, report in detail.
