Read the following :—

No. 391. Proceedings of the Court of Wards, dated 23rd January 1871.

Read the following letter from the Collector of Tanjore, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Trivadi, 25th November 1870, No. 426.

With reference to the enclosed Petition,* addressed to Government by Puvayi and Ponnayi, mothers of the minor heirs of the Bhavani Ambapuram estate under the charge of the Court of Wards, I have the honour to state, that as the dissention between these two women was one of the reasons for the estate being taken under the Court's management, as this small property is situated in an out-of-the-way corner of the district, as it is difficult for the Revenue authorities to manage, and as petitioners are now on good terms, and anxious to have it restored to their own care again, I beg to support the application now made by them, since they are the natural guardians of the minors.

2. I must add that the actual income of this estate is found to be much below what it was originally estimated to be. The gross income was roughly estimated to be about Rs. 4,000 (vide

† In the Proceedings of the Court of Wards, dated 6th January 1870, No. 80. my letter† to the Court of Wards dated 27th November 1869), but from leases which have been taken out for the current year, I find it is not likely to be much over Rs. 2,000, and deducting the Government dues, the net income will be only Rs. 1,200 or thereabouts. The main cause of this decrease is the falling off in the prices of grain.

Under the circumstances now reported by the Collector, the Court of Wards resolve to recommend to Government that they may be authorized to relinquish the management of the estate of Bhavani Ambapuram to the widows of the deceased owners.

No. 392. Proceedings of the Court of Wards, dated 23rd January 1871.

Read the following letter from the Officiating Collector of Tanjore, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Vallam, 16th January 1871, No. 11.

I HAVE the honour to request that the Board will be pleased to obtain early orders from Government on the petition reported upon in Mr. Morris's letter of the 25th November 1870, No. 426.

2. A Suit of a somewhat complicated nature has been instituted against the mother of one of the minor heirs of the Bhavani Ambapuram estate for the recovery of certain land thereto belonging, and in the event of the estate being about to be made over to the charge of the private guardians, it will be unnecessary for the Revenue authorities to intervene and take the trouble of defending the case on behalf of the minors.

3. The case has been posted for hearing on the 6th proximo.
