Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Coimbatore, to the Acting leaving behind her a thatched hovel. This is a case to which Regulation VII. of 1817 applies. The value of the hovel is reported to be about 8 Annas, and as the building in all probability will fall down, I have (in anticipation of orders) directed it to be sold by public auction, and have the honour to request that sanction may be obtained for the same.
