Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 2nd February 1871.

No. 30. Read the following Proceedings of the Court of Wards, dated 19th January 1871, No. 264:—

Read the following letter from the Collector of Malabar, to the Acting Secretary to the Court of Wards, dated Calicut, 21st December 1870, No. 407.

UNDER Section 3, Regulation V. of 1804, I have the honour to report that a woman named Kottarone Oonanga died on the 20th September 1870, leaving property of the value of Rs. 1,092-5-11, and leaving only a male child fourteen days old.

2. She is a native of the Kottayam Taluq, and, under the laws in force here, has no other legal heir.

3. I enclose copy of a report on the subject from the Sub-Collector, which gives details of the property, etc.

4. As the extent of property left is not large, I do not think it advisable to take it under the management of the Court, and should the Court adopt this view, I will request the Civil Judge to appoint the father of the child its guardian under the provisions of Section 3 of Regulation X. of 1831.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From W. LOGAN, Esq., Sub-Collector, to the Collector of Malabar, dated Tellicherry, 1st December 1870, No. 1,116.

A NAYAR woman, named Kottarone Oonanga, died on the 4th Kanni 1046 (20th September 1870), leaving a male child fourteen days old. She lived in Moorkoth Vadu in Payashi Amshom and Deshom in Kottayam Taluq. Her husband Paringali Ambu, who lived with her for about six or seven years, has taken care of the child for the present. She was one of a family which was, as several others in North Malabar, polluted at the time of Tippoo's incursion in Malayalam year 964. One Kottarone Koren, residing in Koodaly Amshom in the said taluq, came forward after her death claiming her property and the custody of the child, but it appears by the statement made by the deceased before the Adigari of Payashi Amshom on the day previous to her death, that there is no one but the child to inherit her property. I have the honour to recommend that the management of the property and the care of the child may be made over to Paringali Ambu, the father, till the child attains maturity. Pending your instructions, I have issued orders to the Tahsildar to the above effect. The property is at present in the charge of the Adigari. Two lists, one of the assets and another of liabilities, are forwarded herewith. An abstract of those lists is shown below:—
