Letters to Governments of Madras and Bombay, Nos. 446 and 447, dated 9th October 1871.

Telegram to Secretary of State, No. 279, dated 15th September 1871.

RESOLUTION.

THE names of the young men trained in the Continental Forests of Europe who are expected to arrive in India by the end of this year are—

Mr. M. H. Ferrars.

„ J. S. Gamble.

„ J. T. Jellicoe.

„ J. L. Laird.

Mr. A. W. Peet.

„ D. Sillers.

„ R. H. C. Whittall.

„ R. C. Wroughton.

2. The Governments of Madras and Bombay having each expressed a wish to have one of these trained Assistants for employment in the forests of those Presidencies, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to comply with their request.

3. His Excellency in Council is of opinion that the remaining six young men should be attached to Provinces, the forests of which will afford them the best opportunities for learning their work in India, and in this view has directed that two should be posted to the North-Western Provinces, two to the Punjab and two to British Burmah.

4. The names of the young men to be posted to the Presidencies and Provinces above referred to will be given hereafter. Meanwhile the Governor-General in Council has directed that Mr. Peet should be posted to Madras and Mr. Whittall to the North-Western Provinces.

5. On arrival in this country the young men will be appointed Assistant Conservators in the 3rd Grade on Rs. 250 per mensem, and will be borne as supernumeraries on the establishments of the Provinces to which they will be posted.

6. Of the trained Assistants who came out in 1869, two are at present in the North-Western Provinces, two in the Punjab, one in Burmah, and one in Sindh. It is proposed to transfer one of those in the North-Western Provinces and the two
