I feel the want of an Assistant very much, for the work of the Collector's and Special Agents' offices alone is quite enough to employ all my time, and in the absence of an Assistant I am often compelled to take up Magisterial work which throws me back very much.

Conduct of Public Servants. The Acting Sub Collector Mr. Sharp, and Mr. Foster, the District Assistant, have both cooperated with me with cordiality.
 The latter officer left the District on promotion not long ago, and the former is just about to go away on furlough, so that although I shall have them in charge of the District for 5 months I expect to be the longest resident in it of all the Commanced officers by the end of this month. For a month I had Mr. Atkinson as my Assistant, and after an interval Mr. Knap for about the same time when he too left the District. Both officers were most willing to do all they could to aid me. I feel the
