Sir In Acknowledging the receipt of Government Order No. 1766, dated 10th October 1871 referring a letter from the Government ^{of India} on the subject of the grant of waste lands under the Lease Rules, I am directed to request that some more specific information may be given as to the Rules intended.

2. Waste land in this Presidency has been granted in fee simple under the Rules for the Sale of Waste Lands, and has also been given on what is called 'lowli' tenure, the condition of which often is that the land may be resumed if certain improvements for the sake of which it was granted are not carried out in accordance with the terms of the grant; but the Board are not
