Miscellaneous No. 4624.

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue. dated 18th December 1871.
Read the following

No. 2405.

From,

G. Sans Agnew Esq^r
Collector of Madras.

To,

J. B. Cunningham Esq^r Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that about three months ago I appointed one Vennalaganti Maraya 1st Vernacular Accountant to be Telugu Record Keeper and to request that under the circumstances of the case, he may be exempted from passing the Thesis Test which the Rules require.

2 On the old native Record Keeper retiring retiring in September last, I found that Karnaya was the person best suited to the post from his long service in my office, and his general familiarity with the Records. He was not only employed before 1859, but held after that date the appointment of Vernacular second clerk on Rs 50. It appears however, that, as he was considered incapable of performing the Magisterial duties attached to that office by Mr Kelly, he was degraded in October 1864 to the post of Vernacular Accountant on 45 Rupees, in which appointment he did very well. There are several persons in the District who have passed the Mercis Test, but they have not the qualifications for the office of Record-keeper, which are possessed by Karnaya, who moreover will be content to remain in the post for the remainder of his service. The others would be ever seeking promotion, and it is not advisable often to change the Recordkeepers. Karnaya is 50 years old, and has not passed, nor can he be expected to pass any tests.

A copy of his service Register is enclosed.
3 The Accountant General has objected objected to pass his pay without special sanction. I relied upon his doing so, on my showing that Karnaya had held an appointment of 50 Rupees subsequent to 1859, and he considers that special sanction is necessary to support the appointment.

4 I recommend therefore that Karnaya may be exempted from passing the Mercis Test, and his salary passed from the date of his appointment, viz-4th September 1871.
