No. 294. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 11th June 1872, No. 959 :—

Read the following letter from C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Namakal, 2nd May 1872, No. 109 :—

WITH reference to the Sub-Secretary's Official Memorandum, No. 1,502, dated 9th November last, I have the honour to state, that the corrections pointed out in paragraph 2 have been made, and the Tabular Report is herewith re-submitted.

2. In reply to paragraphs 3 to 5, I have to state that the allowance was divided between, and enjoyed in 1848 by the three individuals Dad Sha, Kattu Bava Sahib, and Peer Sahib, the first two being the grandsons of the original grantee by sons, and the last by a daughter; a fourth of the pension was given to Peer Sahib for performing the services to the Dargah, and a half of it was taken by Dada Sha, the registered Inamdar, the remaining fourth being enjoyed by Kattu Bava Sahib.

3. Upon the demise of Peer Sahib, his heirs do not appear to have come forward to perform the services of Dargah or to have claimed any share in the Inam. Upon Dada Sha being subsequently imprisoned in 1861, a third of the Inam pension was paid to him, the other two-thirds being enjoyed by Kattu Bava Sahib, who performed the duties appertaining to the Inam.

4. A Genealogical Table shewing the degree of relationship existing between the several descendants of the original grantee is herein, enclosed, for the Board's information. The statement received with the Sub-Secretary's Official Memorandum of the 9th ultimo, No. 511, is also returned.

No. 6. SALEM.	Tripatore Taluq, Vaniambady.	Granted by the Nabob Cuddapah to Ekin Shah under a Sanad which from the old tab is illegible. The accounts of the Musjeed appears to have been lost in a distrainee, and a Mazuranama is forthcoming, which was granted by the Kirzee of Baramahal, in evidence of the disappearance of the Sanad	Granted for service in Musjid Ayaha Dargah at Periapet-tah in Vaniambady, the service consisting in keeping the Dargah clean and celebrating once a year a feast called Urus.	Dada Sha was the last holder, who died on the 20th May 1871. He was the grandson of the original grantee.	The allowance was divided into 3 shares, of which one was enjoyed by the deceased and the other two by Kattu Bava Sahib his cousin (son of the latter's brother) one of these two shares being intended for the performance of service,	Sons of the deceased, Ages. 1. Hussain Sha ... 18 2. Babukhan ... ... 6 3. Bayakhan ... ... 5 Sons of Kattu Bava Sahib... ... ... 53 1. Hazimeah ... ... 27 2. Nanny Meah ... 16 3. Eyad Khan ... ... 12 4. Ameer ... ... 10 These seem to possess besides this allowance another Inam of Nunjah land, measuring 100 Coostahs, in the village of Karanchy in the North Arcot District.	It appears that the deceased Lumadar was in 1861 convicted with a case of robbery in the North Arcot District, for which he was sentenced to 3 years imprisonment, during which period Kattu Bava Sahib, cousin of the deceased was appointed, (conveyed in his Order No 220 of 7th October 1861) to attend to the services of the Dargah and enjoy the allowance, and that from that time forward the said Kattu Bava Sahib has continued to perform the service and receive the allowance. Hussain Sha the deceased's son, requests that the Inam may be registered in his name, which is objected to by Kattu Bava Sahib, on the grounds that he and the deceased were the grandsons of the original grantee Ekin Shah, he being the son of the eldest son, and the deceased that of the younger; that on the death of Ekin Shah, the registry was made in the name of his father Miskin Shah, and that on the death of the latter his cousin, the deceased, was registered as the grantee. The Dargah, which is a brick and chunam building, is in good repair, and the service contemplated by the grant faithfully fulfilled. I recommend, therefore, that the registry be made in the joint name of Hussain Sha and Hazimeah, son, Hazimah and Hussain Sha, the eldest son of the deceased, and request that sanction may be granted for the disbursement of the arrears of the amounting to Rupees 19-11-5. The Tahsildar, who has been called upon to account for the delay in reporting this case, states that the different parties from whom it was necessary for him to take statements, did not appear before him in time, but I have pointed out to him the futility of the reasons assigned, and have issued him notice.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
28th June 1872.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. In this case the allowance, Rupees 73-13-8, per annum, was granted for service in a Shrine (Dargah). It appears that in 1848 it was held jointly by Dada Sha, Peer Sahib, and Kattu Bava Sahib, grandsons of the original grantee, and that its continuance to them was sanctioned in Extract Minutes of Consultation, dated 29th January 1849, No. 102. The grant was registered in the sole name of Dada Sha though Kattu Bava Sahib was the representative of the senior branch of the family. Dada Sha held $\frac{1}{2}$ of the allowance and Peer Sahib and Kattu Bava Sahib $\frac{1}{4}$ each.

3. On the death of Peer Sahib (when is not stated) his share was not claimed by his heirs.

4. Dada Sha was convicted of robbery and sentenced to three years imprisonment in 1861 when by order of the Collector Kattu Bava Sahib performed the service and received $\frac{2}{3}$ of the allowance $\frac{1}{3}$ being paid to the convict Dada Sha. This arrangement apparently continued up to the death of Dada Sha on the 20th May 1871.

5. Hussain Sha eldest son of the deceased Dada Sha claims to be registered in succession to his father. To this Kattu Bava Sahib objects on the ground that he as the representative of the senior branch of the family has a preferable claim. He consents however to the joint registry of Hussain Sha son of the deceased and his own eldest son Hazimeah. This arrangement is recommended by the Collector

6. Having regard however to the pecuniar circumstances of the case, small amount of the grant, and to the provisions of Standing Circular No. 175, the Board recommend the registry of the grant in the name of Kattu Bava Sahib and the continuance of the whole of it to him.

7. The arrears of Dada Sha's share should be paid to his heirs.
