WANT of water is felt in some of the villages of Gumsur, Hautghur, and Teckally, in addition to Berhampore and Peddakimidy. In some of the villages of Berhampore digging of wells is in progress, and it has been completed in two villages, while steps are being taken to dig them in other places. A few families from Peddakimidy and Surangy moved to Gumsur some two months ago, and 350 persons emigrated from Peddakimidy. Cattle in certain places of Gumsur are suffering from disease. Importation of paddy at Rumbah from Pooree and Cuttack both by Chilka and carts freely continues.

To
The Secretary to the Government of Madras.
Fort William the 9 January 1872

Sir,
Succaree.
I am directed to invite your serious attention to the Circular from this Office No. 25/34 dated 24th of October last, and to request that as the Governor General in Council is extremely anxious that Act XXVI of 1871 (an act to consolidate and amend the law relating to advances of money by the Government for agricultural improvements) should be brought into force at once, His Excellency the Governor in Council will be good enough to cause the rules, required under Section 18, for the application of the Act, to be prepared and submitted without further
