1	Nellore, of Nellore Taluq. 10 Rupees a month or 120 Rupees a year.	By Madras Government on 23rd October 1850, No. 991, and Board's Proceedings, No. 404, dated 26th September 1850. No Sanad.	Compensation in lieu of a certain portion of the revenue of the resumed village of Marripad attached to the resumed Jaghire of Udayagiri in the Nellore District, to which the grantee was found entitled.	Pesanur Lutchminarsu died on 7th Nov. 1871. This individual was the grantee.	No shares. The deceased was enjoying the whole grant of 10 Rs.	1. Widow Lucchimiboyemma age 50 years. 2. 1st son, Pasanur Gopal Row, age 30 years. 3. 2nd son, Pasanur Rama Row, age 24 years. 4. Daughter Venkata Rungunmah (married), age 16 years. No other means of subsistence.	Employed in the Settlement Department on pay of 15 Rupees.	This allowance was granted in 1850 by the Madras Government as compensation in lieu of resumed privileges in the village of Marripad. The Rusum was granted for life to the deceased, and in making the grant the Government directed that on the grantee's death the lapse should be specially reported for the orders of Government. For the circumstances under which the allowance was granted, vide Board's Proceedings, No. 404, dated 26th September 1850. The deceased has left two sons and a daughter. One of the sons is employed in the Revenue Settlement Department. I submit the case for such orders as the Government may deem proper to pass.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
15th July 1872.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government.

2. The village of Marripad was originally granted on Shrotriem tenure to Gopal Row in 1776. He leased it to the Jaghiredar of Udayagiri in whose Jaghire it was situate. Gopal Row died leaving two sons, Rama Row (the elder) who died without issue in 1826, and Lutchminarsu Row whose death is now reported. When Rama Row attained his majority the village was made over to him.

3. Subsequently the brothers having quarrelled the Jaghiredar again took the village into his own hands on rent, and by arbitration it was arranged in 1826 that the elder brother should receive two-thirds of the resources of the village and the younger one-third and a cowlenamah to this effect granted to the villagers. Rama Row the elder refused to receive the share assigned to him, and on his death, which took place in the same year, it was assumed by the Jaghiredar. Lutchminarsu Row apparently continued to enjoy his share until the resumption of the Jaghire in 1840 on account of the misconduct of the Jaghiredar.

4. With the Jaghire were resumed five Shrotriem villages including Marripad which though not belonging to the Jaghire were at the time in the possession of the Jaghiredar. In sanctioning the assumption of these villages, Government directed that it should be effected without injury or injustice to persons having an interest in the property but who had not shared the evil designs of the Jaghiredar.

5. This [illegible] seems to have been overlooked when Lutchminarsu Row first claimed the village in 1841. In 1850, however, on his claim again coming under the consideration of the Board, they deemed it admissible to the extent of the share formerly enjoyed by him. They accordingly recommended* that a grant of Rupees 120 per annum should be continued to him for life, the lapse to be specially reported with reference to the circumstances of the family. To this recommendation Government acceded—(Extract Minutes Consultation, 23rd October 1850, No. 991). Lutchminarsu Row being dissatisfied with the share assigned to him, memorialized the Secretary of State praying that the village might be restored to him or that his brother's share of its revenue might also be granted to him.

* Board's Proceedings, 26th September 1850, No. 2,018.

6. The Secretary of State regarded Lutchminarsu Row's claim to the whole village as inadmissible and the grounds on which his share was calculated at Rupees 120 per annum as sufficient; but adverting to the fact that the title to that amount was admittedly valid he considered that the claim of Lutchminarsu Row's successor to its continuance should at the proper time receive the favourable consideration of Government (Extract Minutes Consultation, 30th March 1859, No. 437). Lutchminarsu Row has left surviving a widow, two sons, and a daughter. The daughter is married and the younger son is employed in the Public Service on a salary of Rupees 15 a month. It is represented that the family has no other means of subsistence.

7. The Board recommend the continuance of the grant to Pasanur Gopal Row, elder son of the deceased, from the 7th November 1871, the date of his father's death.
