Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
22nd July 1872.

No. 193. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 21st June 1872, No. 1,058:—

Read the following letter from C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 17th May 1872, No. 121.

With reference to the Board's Proceedings of the 12th ultimo, No. 2,668, I have the honour to enclose the copy of a letter received from my Head Assistant, from which it will be seen that the mother of the minor proprietors of the Elayanagaram Mittah is competent and willing to manage the affairs of her minor sons.

Enclosure No. 1.

From A. J. B. ATKINSON, Esq., Acting Head Assistant Collector, to the Collector of Salem, dated 1st May 1872, No. 161.

With reference to your letter No. 346 of 24th ultimo, I have the honour to state that I have seen the widow of the late Mittahdar of Elayanagaram.

2. She appears in conversation to be an intelligent and acute lady of 30 years of age, and I should say quite able to look after her own affairs.

3. She desires that both her male children—Soobramiah aged 6, and Kanakasabaputhy aged 4—may be registered, and that she herself may be appointed guardian during their minority. She has several male relations well to do, one of whom (her nephew) is the son of the Vaniembady Devastanam Mittahdar. She has also a Gumastah in her employ. From these persons she will get all the aid she requires. She fears that if a guardian is appointed the small income of the estate will be squandered.

(Signed) C. T. LONGLEY,
Collector.

Under this explanation the Board are further confirmed in the opinion they have already offered.

No. 194. Order thereon, 22nd July 1872, No. 1,106.

Miscellaneous.

Under the circumstances stated, the Government deem it unnecessary to place the estate under the Court of Wards.

(True Extract.)

Secretary to Government.
