

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd July 1872.

No. 203. Read the following letter from the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Ootacamund, dated Chepauk, 10th June 1872, No. 1,085-33 :—

MR. CARDOZO who was promoted to Deputy Superintendent, Revenue Survey, vice Colonel Barber, from the 12th December last, was as 1st Assistant Superintendent in receipt of Rupees 550 per m consolidated, having been raised in September 1868 to the special class sanctioned by the Supreme Government in paragraph 12 of their observations given in G. O., dated 11th November 1865, No. 2,732.

2. I believe it is the intention of Government that promotion with increased responsibility should carry with it some pecuniary advantage, and therefore that Mr. Cardozo being a 1st Assistant of the special class should, from the date of promotion, draw the rate sanctioned by the Supreme Government for a Deputy Superintendent of the special class Rupees 750.

3. At present I find that through some misconception he is drawing Rs. 500 pay and fixed travelling allowance Rupees 75, his pay as 1st Assistant having been Rupees 550 consolidated; thus when on leave he will actually draw Rupees 50 less as Deputy Superintendent than he did as 1st Assistant Superintendent.

No. 204. ORDER THEREON, 22nd July 1872, No. 1,111.

Miscellaneous.

MR. CARDOZO having been brought as a 1st Assistant Superintendent, Revenue Survey, on the consolidated scale of allowances, should on promotion to a Deputy Superintendent be retained on that scale, and his pay be adjusted accordingly.

In June 1865, the Govt recommended to the Govt of India the adoption of a scale of consolidated salaries in the Survey Dept the effect of which would be to fix the pay of a 1st Assistant Supt at Rs 550, and of a Deputy at Rs 750.

The original scale
of staff salaries assigned Rs 425, and Rs 575 in-cluding the travelling al-lowance for these grades plus the military pay of the incumbent, so that the pay varied with rank

in

in the case of a military man and civilians were under-
-paid -

The Supreme Govt. de-clined to sanction the scale as the rule but ob-
-served that special recom-mendation might be made in the case of any officer
"particularly deserving of an increase" without add-ing to the pay of others whom the Supt. of Survey does not consider particularly deserving.

In February 1867 and May 1868 the Govt. of India were requested to sanction the increase of Mr. Cardoso's pay as a 1st Assistant from

67
"from Rs 425 to Rs 550 con-solidated" and in August 1868, the increase was sanc-tioned by the Supreme Govt.
It is submitted that this action ^{must be held to have} in effect sanctioned the placing of Mr. Cardoso on the the consolidated scale of pay - He was promoted in December last to be a Deputy Supt. and unless the sanction be thus interpreted the effect of his promotion will be to alter his pay from Rs 550 con-solidated as a 1st Assistant to Rs 500 pay plus Rs 75 ha-veling allowance as a Deputy so that when on leave he will actually draw less pay by Rs 50 as a Deputy than he did as a 1st Assistant.
