No. 246

From A. J. Stuart Esquire
Acting Sub Collector

To H. E. Sullivan Esquire
Asst Collector

Sirs In No. 1278. Your letter Vincularayan has cultivated a portion of the margin of the Yellair River, adjoining his Servile Inam in Lateharree, a Proprietary Village in the Reddapers Taluk. From its situation within the boundary of Divili, a Government village as shown by the marks put down down by the Demarcation Department, the land was thought to be Government Ashabminik and Rs 5-12-7 was demanded and collected from the above Guandar.

2. It was subsequently ascertained, that when the boundary between two villages was the centre line of a river, as the yallar, the Settlement Department placed the stones for the sake of permanence along one of the banks of the river. In the present case the land cultivated and charged though beyond the boundary line as marked by the stones, is inside the line of the middle of the river and belongs therefore to the proprietors and not to the
