No. 120. ORDER THEREON, 17th August 1872, No. 1,204.

Miscellaneous.

ORDERED that the Proceedings of Government in the Public Department, 1872 No. 227 be communicated to the Board of Revenue, and that their attention be drawn to paragraph 13, directing the withdrawal of all Government printing work from private Presses, unless specially sanctioned. The Board should not have called for tenders for the work in anticipation of sanction.

2. The Governor in Council desires that the Nellore Manual be printed at the Government Press if the state of work there will admit of it. Otherwise it will be printed at the Asylum Press, the rate of charge being, in the latter case, fixed by the Superintendent of the Government Press.
