SIR,

With reference to para 2 of Board's Proceedings Miscellaneous No. 125 of the 16th January 1871, I have the honor to state that of the extent of land required by the Forest Department, only one acre which was waste was handed over to the Assistant Conservator of Forests. Major Beddome considers that the price asked by the owners of the rest of the land is too high, and therefore he refuses to receive it.
