Sub Collector's Office
Vellore 5th July 1872.

J. Kilsall Esquire
Acting Sub Collector of Bangalore

To

W. S. Whitcombe Esquire
Acting Collector of North Arcot

Sir

I have the honor to ask your attention to the case of C. Sotomayor 1st Class Revenue Inspector in this Taluq.
2^d His service began in 1848 but there have been numerous breaks. He has not passed any examination.

3^d In December 1871 he was sent from Palanur to Vellore to change places with a Revenue Inspector named Vasappa Rao, who knew no Tamil and was unable in a Tamil speaking Taluq.

4th I find that since that date he has been no longer being entitled to the examination rule to be in a post with a higher salary than Refus 25. I do not know under what circumstances he was originally appointed in November 1871 to a Refus 25 post in Palmaria. Perhaps Mr. Robinson intended to recommend him for exemption.

5. There are three courses open to him. To pass to get exempted or to go back to a former lake post. To do the first at his age would be difficult and it would I think be inadvisable to send him back to a Refus 25 post. He has good character and is well known to Mr. Carmichael who has written about him. I make a point of not recommending men for exemption but think this is a special case and that he may be permitted to hold his present post and draw salary of pay. I recommend that with some confidence because it is clear Mr. Robinson thought the man worthy of it.

I have
yours faithfully
J. H. Robinson
Chief Clerk of the Palmaria

Revenue Department

Miscellaneous No 5426

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue dated 7th August 1872.

Read the following

No 319

From

W. S. Whiteside Esq,

Collector of North Arcot

To, J. G. Esq,

Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras.

Sir, I have the honor to forward copy of letter No 405 dated 5th Instant from the Sub Collector recommending that Chedalavadi Setharamaiah 2^d Class Revenue Inspector of Vellore be exempted from passing the General Test Examination.

2. From the enclosed copy of the Service Register, it will be seen that Setharamaiah has been continuously employed in grades eligible for pension from 1861, and that previous to that year from 1843 to 1854 he was holding various temporary appointments, in the

the Revenue Department qualifying him for the post he now holds.

2. In the course of last year Mr Robinson appointed Sectaramaia as Revenue Inspector of the Palamanair Taluk under the impression that the Examination Rules would not bear his employment in that grade having previously held without objection the same and similar appointments.

Sectaramaia was then transferred to Vellore in the room of another Revenue Inspector whose transfer to a Telugu Taluk became necessary.

4. He is reported to bear a good Character, an important qualification for a Revenue Inspector. The Sub Collector considers that it would be a great hardship to turn out Sectaramaia from his present appointment after a service of about (8) eight months in it.

5. Sectaramaia is now 46 years of age.

If

It would therefore be very hard for him now to study for the examination while he has constantly to itinerate in his Division in the daily discharge of his multifarious duties.

6. I request therefore that the Board will be pleased under the circumstances now set forth to forward this application to Government supported by their own recommendation on behalf of this old servant of Government.

North Arcot
Collector's Office,
Camp, Palamanair
24th July 1872—

I have &c
(Signed) W. S. Whiteside
As Collector.

Submitted for the favorable consideration of Government—

The Board are of opinion that Revenue Inspector C. Sectaramaya who is reported to be an efficient Officer of good good Character, having entered the service in 1843 and being now 46 years of age should be exempted from passing the special test. Had his service been continuous no application on his behalf would be required but he only obtained permanent post in 1861.
