From G. THORNHILL, Esq., Acting 2nd Member of the Board of Revenue, on special duty, to
G. TURNER Esq., C. E., Salur, dated Camp at Yellamanchili, 11th March 1872, No. 15.

Mr. H. G. Turner, Assistant Agent in Jeypore, having informed me that after an inspection of the ghaut into Jeypore you had expressed your willingness to undertake the duty of superintending the retracing of the ghaut in addition to the survey and construction of the Salur road, I have the honour to request that you will be so good as to enter on that work as soon as possible.

2. As regards the Salur road, Mr. Melville has deputed Mr. Johnson to assist in making over the land without delay, so I hope you will soon have made a beginning there. A further sum of Rupees 5,000 has been sanctioned for expenditure on that road, including compensation for land making a total of 10,000, which is, I imagine, as much as can conveniently be spent during the present working season.
