No. 42. Read the following telegram from APPAYAGAR and SRINIVASA ROW of Bobbili Raneegar, to Officiating Chief Secretary, Madras, dated 11th November 1872 :—

VENKATAGIRI Rajah's sister asked us, through her brother and Collector of Nellore, to get permission of Bobbili Raneegar to treat her with proper respect if her husband is dead, and left Venkatagiri after hearing Raneegaroo's consent. Venkatagiri Rajah has accompanied our Rajah with his nearest relative, Ramayagar, with family, principal servants, 70 except this lady. Venkatagiri Dewan came; he and relative servants now instigated her to decline to go to Bobbili, with a view to get our young Rajahgar back to Venkatagiri, and asked assistance of the Police too. Her husband's funeral ceremonies and mourning days are over a fortnight ago. We stayed here 34 days. Orders for our speedy journey solicited. Reply prepaid Rs. 10.
