No. 46. Read the following despatch from the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for India, (Financial,) to His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor in Council, Fort St. George, dated India Office, London, 31st August 1872, No. 95:—

Letter from Mr. Cox, 25th July 1872.
,, to ,, ,, 23rd Aug. ,,

I FORWARD herewith, for your information, copy of correspondence with Mr. J. H. M. Cox, Deputy-Director of Revenue Settlement, Madras, relative to his absentee allowances under the new Civil Leave Code.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From J. H. M. COX, Esq., Deputy-Director of Revenue Settlement (on leave), Madras Presidency, to the Under-Secretary of State, India Office, London, S W., dated Hampstead, N.W., 25th July 1872.

I HAVE the honour to enclose, for your consideration, original copy of the Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, No. 946, dated 19th ultimo, passed upon the application which, on inquiry at the India Office in May last, I was told it was necessary that I should make to that Government, regarding the extra allowances I might be entitled to under the new Civil Leave Code.

2. In handing in this paper I beg to point out two mistakes which appear to exist in the Accountant-General's letter, namely:—

(1.) That according to the wording of the Government Order the new Rules were deemed to have come into effect from the 3rd January, and not the 14th March 1872; and,

(2.) That my extension of leave was granted on the 2nd February, that being the date of the Financial Secretary's communication to me, and not the 14th March 1872.

3. As I further understand the Accountant-General's letter, he seems to say that my leave should be classified as follows:—

	M.	D.
From 22nd April 1871 to 13th March 1872, or	10	22	on Furlough drawing £200 per annum.
,, 14th March ,, to 21st July ,,	4	8	on Medical Certificate £420 ,,
,, 22nd July ,, to 21st October ,,	3	0	do. do. £210 ,,

on Medical Certificate, according to which I should only draw the higher rate of sick leave allowance (i.e., half average salary, or £420 per annum) for about four months instead of fifteen months as provided in Section 4 of Supplement E of the Civil Leave Code.

4. The case appears to me rather to stand thus:—

	M.	D.
From 22nd April 1871, to date of new Rules...	8	12	on Furlough drawing £200 per annum.
,, 3rd Jan. 1872, to 21st April 1872 ...	3	18	do. £420 ,,
,, 22nd April ,, to 21st Oct. ,, ...	6	0	on Medical Certificate £420 ,,

This would give one year on furlough and six months on Medical Certificate; the latter being the extension granted me on sick leave, as per Financial Secretary's letter already referred to, Section 13 of Supplement F of the Rules not providing apparently for furlough being commuted into leave on Medical Certificate.

5. In all the above calculations I have not taken into account what further allowances I may be judged entitled to should it hereafter be decided that I should be admitted to the full benefits of the Civil Service Rules under Schedule A.

6. I trust that I may shortly be favoured with an answer to this, informing me of how my leave will be counted, and what allowances I may draw from your treasury, and requesting that the enclosed Government Proceedings may be returned to me when done with.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.

From M. E. GRANT-DUFF, Esq., to J. H. M. COX, Esq., dated India Office, 23rd August 1872.

I AM directed by the Secretary of State for India in Council to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th ultimo, and to acquaint you, in reply, that as there is no provision in Supplement F of the Civil Leave Code for the commutation of furlough into sick leave, or for the grant of such leave with allowances in extension of furlough, your request to be permitted to draw absentee allowance during the extension of leave granted you in the letter from this Office of the 2nd February last, cannot be complied with, but instructions have been issued for the necessary adjustment in respect of the increased rates of furlough pay to which you appear to be entitled from the 3rd January to the 21st April last.

2. I am directed to add that the copy of the Proceedings of the Government of Madras must necessarily be retained at this Office as authority for the adjustment of your allowances.
