Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
20th November 1872.

No. 149. Read the following Proceedings of the Board
August 1872, No. 1,564. -

THE Board resolve to submit Mr. Kelsall's manu[illegible]trict to Government.

2. The manual appears to be a very useful compila[illegible] referring to G. O., 17th April 1872, No. 618, the reasoning in whic[illegible]s applicable to Mr. Kelsall's work, the Board recommend that the special remuneration of Rupees 2,500 may be granted to him. He is, the Board believe, the only gentleman (the late Mr. Boswell excepted) who has persevered in the work after the orders of the Government of India as to the special honorarium became known.

No. 150. ORDER THEREON, 20th November 1872, No. 1,596.

Miscellaneous.

THE Government concur with the Board in considering Mr. Kelsall's Manual for the Bellary District a very useful compilation. He should be requested to prepare an Index, and a Map of the district should be procured by the Board from the Survey Department. The work may then be published: 300 copies:—Whereof Mr. Kelsall will be presented with any number (not exceeding 20) he may require; 100 should be sent to the Government Office for distribution, and the rest deposited for sale at Rs. 5 the volume.

2. In regard to remuneration, Rs. 2,500 will be paid to Mr. Kelsall, on receipt of the Index, being the amount disbursed to the compilers of the Vizagapatam and Madura Manuals. The order of the Government of India, objecting to the system under which this Government proposed to secure a complete series at Rs. 2,500 for every district, is dated 8th February 1870, while Mr. Kelsall's offer to compile the present work was accepted in G. O., 9th September 1869, No. 2,546.
