No. 347. Read again Proceedings in the Revenue Department, No. 1,041, dated 10th July 1872, sanctioning the sale of the old Head Assistant Collector's Office in Madura, and approving of the provision for the office of the Deputy Collector in Tiroomal Naick's Palace.

No. 348. ORDER THEREON, 19th October 1872, No. 2,470.

CIVIL WORKS, No. 15.

THE sale of the Head Assistant's Cutcherry involves provision for a Range Office in Tiroomal Naick's Palace, which it is observed that the Consulting Architect has proposed to locate in a space marked on the diagram accompanying Lord Napier's Minute, recorded with G. O., No. 69, of January 1872, as to be left "vacant for a waiting hall." Mr. Chisholm will report whether such location will in any way mar the effect of the building or contravene his Lordship's plans.
