Proceedings, Revenue Department, 6th December 1871.

Letter to Governmer [redacted] . 2,059.

No. 333. 1. Read also, the [illegible]cial Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George, dated Fort William, 16th January 1872, No. 349.

In reply to your letter No. 2,059, dated 6th December 1871, I am directed to say that the rule in Financial Resolution No. 2,967, dated 9th November 1870, was intended to have effect even in the cases of officers then employed. The service of persons employed by the Courts of Wards on estates under their charge costs to Government more than the pay they actually receive, and the Government of India see no reason why the estates should not be called on to pay that additional cost. They would probably not get the same class of officers for the pay they give, unless Government promised a pension for the service.

2. I am directed to request that, with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council, the contribution may be enforced, either from the servants themselves, or from the estates under which they are employed.

No. 334. Order thereon, 26th January 1872, No. 167.

Miscellaneous.

Ordered that the correspondence with the Supreme Government be communicated to the Board of Revenue, with the request that they will give effect to the wishes of the Government of India.

Sir,

In reply to your letter, No. 2056 dated 6th December 1871, I am directed to say that the Rule in Financial Resolution No. 2967 dated 9th November 1870, was intended to have effect even in the cases of Officers then employed. The service of persons employed by the Courts of Wards on Estates under their charge costs to Government more than the pay they actually receive; and the Government of India see no reason why the Estates should not be called on to pay that additional cost. They would probably not get the same class of Officers for the pay they give, unless Government promised a pension for the service.

2. I am directed to request, that with the permission of His Excellency the Governor in Council the contribution may be enforced, either from the servants themselves, or from the Estates under which they are employed.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obed. Servant.
