Manager of the Pension Dept has just produced a copy of a reply from the Govt of India dated 11th July 1872, from the Accountant General's office. The letter has not been communicated to the Pension Dept and the original is I presume in the Office at Cotacumana. If it has been mislaid an authenticated copy can easily be procured from the Accountant General and acted upon.
I presume that gratuities are to be granted in all cases.
The only doubtful case is that of Masilamani Pinda-li in whose short service of 3 yrs 4 mo 5 days there were two breaks, but I think he should be treated like the others.

*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, the period of service giving a title to pension, and, if construed with reference to the preceding paragraph, was obviously not intended to impose any restriction not contained in the order of the 29th July 1870, No. 2286. The fact that, in respect of the grants to which the Government of India took exception, service exceeded five years in all the cases and in one extended to eight years and three months, would seem to indicate that service should at any rate exceed the latter period, but the term "short service" is not defined in the communication referred to; and, under the general rules, service exceeding five years, even in the case of inferior servants, gives a title to gratuity.

5. With reference to that portion of the letter of the 22nd July 1871, No. 2273, which implies that the servants of the establishment of the Inam Commissioner were entertained with the knowledge that the establishment was only temporary and was shortly to be reduced, I am directed to observe that, on the organization of the Department in 1859, this Government approved* the proposal of the Inam Commissioner that service in the Department should count for pension. Having regard, therefore, to the expectations legitimately created by that order, to which no objection was raised for more than ten years and a half, it must be admitted that, though the subordinates of the Department might have anticipated a reduction of the establishment at no distant date, yet they had reasonable grounds for believing that their service in it, to whatever it amounted, would count.

From the Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, to the Acting Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Simla, 11th July 1872, No. 862.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 315, dated 3rd May 1872, regarding the title to gratuity on discharge of officers entertained in the establishment of the Inam Commissioner with the knowledge that the establishment was only temporary and was shortly to be reduced. In reply, I am to say that, in the case of all persons engaged subsequent to this date, the provisions of Civil Pension Code, 22 (a) 1, should be applied, but that the decision on the claims of all men already on the establishment is left to the discretion of the local Government.

ORDER THEREON, 21st October 1872, No. 773.

Under the authority conveyed by the letter from the Government of India above recorded, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to the under-mentioned employes on the establishment of the Inam Commissioner, who have been thrown out of employment after completing the periods of service specified, the gratuities noted opposite to their respective names.

2. The Member of the Board of Revenue in charge of the Inam Department should give all employes on the establishment engaged subsequent to the 11th
