No. 142

From

R. W. Barlow Esqre, Collector of the Chingleput District

To

*J. Grose Esqre,
Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras.*

Sir,

I have the honor to request that the sanction of Government may be obtained for refunding Rs 12-2-2 to one Narasimma Chari, Pattadar of Trinkkandalam in the Trivellore Talug, under the following circumstances:

2. In 1865 Rupees 27-4-11 were remitted to this Pattadar by the then Collector on account of lands relinquished in the bed of a Tank; prior to the receipt of this order however, Rs 12-2-2 were collected from him and carried to account; but Petitioner being apparently under the impression that this

this amount had been carried to his credit on account of other arrears outstanding against him, took no fur-ther steps in the matter, until certain property of his was attached last year for arrears of Revenue, when he discovered his mistake, and at once preferred an application for refund.

Chingleput District Collector's Office, I have seen on Circuit. (Signed) R. W. Barlow Covelong, 9th April 1872. As Collector.

The Board resolve to request Government to sanction the refund of Rupees 12-2-2.
